My dad woke me up early and told me to take our dog for a walk. The sun was shining , which made me cheer up a bit. I grabbed the leash and tied it around Margo's neck. Margo walks , so it is important that I hold the leash . Our walk went well at first, until all the sudden a cat ran by . Margo barked and tried to pull me. I had to grab her leash so that she didn't get away. Luckily, the cat turned back and looked at Margo . It scared her so much, that she jumped . It was kind of funny, but I also felt bad. So, I patted Margo on the head and we both walked home .
